WEEK 2 WINNERS!

What a great week of special events and successful campaigning! We raised over $70,000. Through the first week, City employees have shown what caring about the community looks like.

Starting this week, we will have 4 weekly winners that will be visited by 4 T-Rexes. This week, outstanding participation was shown by the following departments:

★ Convention Center with 2% participation in the large departments category (Shout out to Austin Public Health who is a close 2nd with 1.9%),

★ Transportation with 4% participation in the medium departments category (Shout out to Watershed Protection who is a close 2nd with 3.7%),

★ Human Resources with 4.2% participation in the small departments category, and

★ Office of the City Auditor with 33.3% participation in the very small departments category.

Congratulations to those departments! Can they stay on top next week? Can others up their participation to surpass this week's winners? We will see. Fantastic work, so far, but the job is not done yet. We have 3 more weeks ahead of us and $430,000 more to collect to reach our goal. We also have many events planned that will certainly continue to fuel the spirit of giving.

Keep it up, City of Austin! We can be counted on.

BRAVO!

COACCC Coordinators are putting together some fun events and had great turn outs for their first few weeks of activities. Get the details below:

FLEET

Fleet is holding a Snack Box Sale for any City employee at all of their locations. During the first week, they earned $307 in sales at 6 sites.

PUBLIC WORKS

Public Works had their Finance Division Warrant Roundup last Friday and raised over $1,000 for COACCC. Asst. Director James Snow and Director Richard Mendoza were arrested and jailed by Sheriff Kristi Fenton. They were released after funds were raised.

MUNICIPAL COURT

Municipal Court held a bake sale and a taco sale over the past few weeks that was a great success. Their entire team worked together to make it happen and fun for everyone.
